

Developing Leadership Skills in Your Kids

Community Parenting Seminar 6

Why should kids be leaders?

This world needs leaders.

Everyone will be a leader

Parent, employer, teacher, politician, coach,
Community service

The best leaders are good followers.

Under authority

Do the little things, and do them well.

Do their homework, chores.

No attitude

Leaders want to help make it happen.

See the need and meet it. Don't wait to be told what to do

A can-do attitude

Be eager to volunteer

Work with others.

Humble: You might be really good at something, but someone else is better at something else.

Appreciate other people's strengths. Team player.

Look sharp

Hair – Story of guy who didn't comb his hair because he didn't want people to think that he was the type of guy who cared about his hair

Fingernails

Toe nails

Dress

Actively participate

Be on time – Communicates that other people's time is important.

Come prepared

Be Involved

Whatever they are at, they are there to make a difference.

Work past time – don't do the minimum, go the extra mile
