

Session 5: Training with Loving Authority

Determine to win the wrestle for authority.

Proverbs 22:6 [You] train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.

 They are called to obey.

You are called to train them to that which they are called.

Don't be afraid to be the authority in your kids' lives.

Ephesians 6:1-3 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right... NIV

Colossians 3:20 Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.
NIV

Why do we struggle with being the authority?

We don't think we have the right.

We don't want to be that parent. We want to be friends.

We think that if we discipline them they won't know that we love them.

We are afraid of messing them up.

Proverbs 29:15 The rod of correction imparts wisdom,
but a child left to himself disgraces his mother.

Establish an atmosphere of obedience.

Proverbs 22:6 [You] train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.

 If you don't train them to obey, they won't.

Always expect full obedience.

Quickly

Completely

Cheerfully

- No grumbling
- No bad attitude
- No bargaining
- No talking back
- No pouting
- No eye rolling

Always correct disobedience.

Ecclesiastes 8:11 When the sentence for a crime is not quickly carried out, the hearts of the people are filled with schemes to do wrong. NIV

Never shy away from giving correction.

Set and hold standards that launch your kids on a trajectory.

Proverbs 22:6 [You] train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.

 Train them to act stellar or they will act like mere kids.

1 Corinthians 3:3 You are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere men? NIV

Set standards that adults follow.

Set standards that help you establish boundaries and teach authority.

Set standards that teach them to show honor.

Set standards that teach them how to interact lovingly.

Set standards that bring peace and enjoyment.

Set standards that are higher than those of everyone around you.
